

Proclamation

In recognition of the vital importance for education excellence, and meaningful collaboration between the school District and families, we recognize NOVEMBER as Parents' Rights in Education Month

WHEREAS, we acknowledge parents are a child's first and foremost educator, and have the primary responsibility for the education, care and training of their children, and WHEREAS, education is comprised of a range of activities by which families and communities teach knowledge and skills, including ethical and behavioral norms and traditions, and WHEREAS, fairness and equality must be afforded to all students and families in the school district, and WHEREAS, public schools need cooperation and support of all parents, and WHEREAS, the right of free speech, including active participation at board meetings, and the right to introduce and influence policy, is essential in ensuring transparency and open dialogue, among parents, and school officials, and WHEREAS, the parent-child relationship shall be honored and supported by teachers, counselors, administrators, and school board members, THEREFORE, we declare NOVEMBER, Parents' Rights In Education Month affirming the constitutional right of parents to direct the education and upbringing of their children.
